- B. Building the first railroad
- C. Creating a writing system for the Cherokee language
- D. Discovering gold in California

7. Match each cultural detail to its region.

_____ Jazz and blues music	A. Southwest
_____ Adobe villages and the Grand Canyon	B. Southeast
_____ "Home on the Range" and cattle drives	C. West
_____ Tlingit peoples and redwood forests	D. Midwest/Plains

Part B: Source Task

Read the description. Then answer.

Source: The song "Home on the Range" was written around the 1870s by a Kansas doctor. Cowboys sang it on cattle drives across the Great Plains. It describes wide open land, buffalo, and big skies. Kansas made it the official state song in 1947.

8. "Home on the Range" tells us something a map cannot. What is it?

- A. How many states are in the Midwest
- B. The exact location of Kansas
- C. How people felt about the land they lived on
- D. The population of the Great Plains

9. Using the song description, name one thing you can learn about the region from this source. Then explain one thing you would still need a map to find out.

Part C: Constructed Response

10. Choose two U.S. regions. Name one way they are alike and one way they are different. Use details about landforms, climate, resources, or people.

Part D: Virtue Reflection

11. Courtesy is the main virtue in this unit. Why is it important to describe every region — and the people who live there — with kind, careful, accurate words?
